

The 9th Annual

January 15-19, 2026

An ACHA Division 2 Showcase Sponsored by

Big Mountain Hockey Conference

"Champions Go Through The Mountains, Not Around Them!"

Hosted by:

Message from the Commissioner:

On behalf of the Big Mountain Hockey Conference and the State of Colorado, welcome to the 9th Annual Big Mountain Classic, a Showcase of some of the top ACHA Division 2 teams in the Country. Our hope is that this Classic continues to grow, continues to attract the top teams from around the country, and becomes a destination during the Martin Luther King holiday weekend in January each year.

Our Classic has become the most important weekend in the 2nd Semester, as it brings all the top teams together, and has a significant impact on final rankings for these teams. This is why our Big Mountain Classic has continued to grow in number of teams and in reputation as a first class, highly competitive event. As an indication of this, the Classic is becoming more of an invitational event, with requests from many different teams to be placed on the waiting list for the 2027 Big Mountain Classic. One goal is to continue extending invitations to top teams from the other 3 regions of the ACHA D2, drawing the top teams from around the country to compete against the top teams in the West – a kind of “The Best of the West vs. The Best of the Rest” scenario. This 2026 Showcase includes the Southeast Region’s Bowling Green State University Falcons, and the Northeast Region’s UMass Amherst, Northeastern University and Providence College. The waiting list for the 2027 Showcase already has 8 different West Region teams not currently participating in this 2026 Showcase, and at least 7 non-West teams who want to join our Showcase.

We certainly miss the University of Northern Colorado participating in the Big Mountain Classic, not just for the level of competition they brought, but for those teams playing in front of their passionate home crowd when the Greeley Ice Haus is packed. We are working hard with the school to return UNC to action in 2026!

Colorado has so much to offer. With games being all around the Denver Metro Area, Boulder, and Northern Colorado (Ft. Collins and Greeley), there will be plenty of things to do, places to see, top notch restaurants, museums, and the ability to get outside the hotel. From the large cities of Denver and Boulder, to the small towns of Ft. Collins and Greeley, it is our hope that you will have time to enjoy our beautiful state. The downtown area is a great place to just walk around with the 16th Street Mall.

Major Events are also available to you, your team, and your fans. The Western Stock Show and Rodeo is in town January 10th through the 25th, and has many morning, afternoon and evening events that may be a great distraction for your team. In the surrounding areas, within a 1-hour drive, you can visit the Air Force Academy, you can tour the Coors Brewery, and you can even visit the Casinos in Blackhawk and Central City. While there is little time due to the compressed hockey schedule, we are only a short drive away from the world-class ski resorts for skiing, tubing, or just being in the ski-town atmosphere. The NHL’s Colorado Avalanche are also in town on Friday the 16th and Monday the 19th. So, enjoy your time in our beautiful state, prepare to play some great hockey, and we hope that you will make this a regular destination on your schedule year after year.

Game Details

ACHA Division 2 Game Rules are in effect:

- Can Dress maximum 19 Skaters and maximum 3 Goalies.
- Home Team determines Light or Dark Jerseys for each game. Please check before each game.
- Periods will be 20-minute, stop-time periods, with an ice make during the 1st intermission and 2nd Intermission.
- Ties after 3 periods will result in a 3-on-3, 5-minute sudden death Overtime.
 - Teams will switch ends as in the 2nd period.
 - A penalty resulting in a short-handed situation will result in 4-on-3 play.
 - A second penalty resulting in a short-handed situation will result in 5-on-3 play.
 - Upon expiration of the first penalty, play will resume in a 5-on-4 play until a stoppage of play can return the play to 4-on-3. If there is no stoppage of play, and the penalties expire during the course of play, play will continue 5-on-5 until a stoppage of play, and then resume 3-on-3.
 - Tie Games after Overtime will be resolved via a 3-person shootout, and if needed, a sudden-death shootout.
 - The Home Team declares as the first or second shooter.
 - Teams return to the end closest to their bench.
 - All players must participate before a player can shoot for a 2nd time.

Ticket Policies

Ticket Policies will be determined by each Host team and facility:

- Colorado State University/EPIC Ice Center:
 - $10 – Adults, $8 – Military, $5 - Students (College, Grades 6-12)

Following the Games

- All games will be scored live on HockeyTech.
 - Go to www.bigmountainhockey.com. Select Teams, pick a team, select SCHEDULE, and then you can use the filter to find your team. The default should be “JANUARY” for the schedule. If not, select JANUARY from the drop down.
 - On our Website, at the conclusion of each day, scores for all games will be posted under the “2026 Big Mountain Classic” Tab.
- All game results will be posted in each rink each evening so that all teams/players/coaches/fans can see the results of every game at every rink.
- Our goal is to have EVERY game streamed live for the Showcase. However, because some of the schools do not begin classes until the Tuesday after MLK Day, some students who perform this function may not have yet returned to school. We make best efforts to find resources to stream the game, even if it is video only, no commentary.
 - Each Team has its own platform for streaming.
 - All games at the Greeley Ice Haus and at the Promenade Ice Centre NOT involving MSU Denver will use the Big Mountain Hockey Conference’s YouTube Channel – STREAMING <https://www.youtube.com/@BigMountainHockeyConference>
 - MSU Denver – STREAMING through <https://www.youtube.com/@msudenverachahockey5962>
 - Univ. of Colorado –STREAMING through <https://www.youtube.com/@SkoBuffsSports>
 - Univ. of Denver – STREAMING through <https://www.youtube.com/@priceproductions970>
 - Colorado State – STREAMING through <https://www.youtube.com/@priceproductions970>
- Price Productions is a proud partner to the Big Mountain Hockey Conference, streaming and broadcasting the games for MSU Denver, Colorado State University and University of Denver for their players, fans and families! www.priceproductions970.com

To All teams visiting the Big Mountain Classic, my name is Charlie Marchese, and I am the commissioner of the BMHC. I want to share something with you, and then I have two requests:

Request 1: If we haven't already, Please allow us to visit with you and the team in the locker room before a game during the Big Mountain Classic Showcase. Why? Let me tell you a story:

If you look closely at the helmet of many of our teams, you will see a sticker with a green ribbon and a BTR logo. We all play for something bigger than ourselves. THIS IS OUR CAUSE!

Nick Bales, part of a Denver, CO hockey family, built a brand and a movement. For what, you ask? Nick was a high schooler, and a hockey player. He struggled with anxiety and depression, which is an epidemic amongst our young kids these days. To help himself cope while in high school, Nick build a brand called Brought To Reality – BTR. He started an apparel business with the BTR logo, in an effort to bring awareness to teen mental health and to end the stigma surrounding mental illness.

We are all hockey players, right? We are all supposed to be strong, to be competitive, to hide pain, to be leaders. We are taught to fight through adversity, to “man-up”, to shake it off, and to get back in the play. This is okay when it is physical pain (blocking a shot, taking a big hit), because we all know the difference between “hurt” and “injured”.

But what happens when it is a mental struggle? Are we too stubborn to reach out for help, or are we man enough to admit that mental struggle is something that can't just be ignored? Do we keep this inside, hidden from those around us, or are we strong enough to share this with some trusted source – a parent, a family member, a friend, a teammate?

Most importantly, Nick strived to encourage compassion among his peers. In his college essay, Nick wrote: “We should all help each other get through the difficult times.” Unfortunately, Nick did not have the opportunity to attend college because he lost his battle against mental illness on September 29, 2018.

Why is this important to us? Nick would be coming upon the conclusion of his college hockey career this very year. Many of his friends, his teammates, would be competing with and against him at one of our BMHC hockey programs. Now, many of them are completing their college hockey careers. He is one of us, and he has left us a very important legacy – SAY SOMETHING, YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

Our goal is to get this simple helmet sticker or the BTR wristband everywhere. This movement is spanning the country. All BMHC teams wear this sticker on their helmets. Now, in just 2 years, over 46 ACHA Hockey Teams around the country wear this sticker, and over 90+ athletic teams. It is our role in this to spread his message, to keep his memory alive, and to end the stigma surrounding this mental health challenge. Nick's message is simple: “MY GOAL IS TO ENCOURAGE MY PEERS TO BE TRUE TO THEMSELVES, TO STAY GROUNDED IN REALITY, AND TO NOT NUMB THEMSELVES WHEN TIMES GET TOUGH”.

Are you strong enough to be that trusted source for your brother or sister, your classmate or teammate? Are you struggling with similar issues of anxiety and depression and need that trusted source yourself?

Request 2 – can we count on you to put this sticker on your helmet, and spread the word everywhere you go? We ask you to keep Nick's memory and dream alive, but the truth is we all know someone like Nick. It takes a strong man to admit a weakness, and an even stronger teen young man, a hockey player, a teammate, classmate, friend, a son and a brother, to then do something about it.

Check out the Website (<https://broughttoreality.com/>) to learn more about Nick, his mission, the foundation started by his family in Nick's name, and help us make this wave go across the country. You might be surprised to see how many professional athletes are involved. It is up to us to do our part.

Brought to Reality is currently run by the Bales family with the hopes to continue Nick's dreams to erase the stigma on mental health. 100% of the BTR's profits support youth mental health awareness and financially assists those in need of therapy. To date, the Bales Family has contributed over $176,000 and has provided over 2084 Therapy Sessions to those in need! If BTR can save just one life, then we have succeeded. It just could be yours.
